About Kuala Penyu

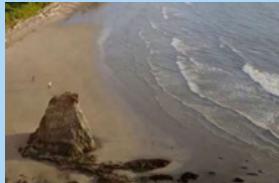

Kuala Penyu is a small beach town located on the west coast of Sabah, Malaysia. It is situated about 120 kilometres south of Kota Kinabalu, the capital city of Sabah. This is one of the peaceful coastal towns in Sabah, offering a mix of natural beauty, cultural heritage, and outdoor activities for visitors to enjoy.

The town is named after the Sitompok River, which flows through the area. It is also said that the name Kuala Penyu was given based on a mythology about a rock that was formed like a turtle-like mammal that sank in Kuala Sungai Tasik Sitompok in this area, rather than because it was the place of the turtle's primary landing location. However, the Batu Penyu can only be seen at low tide at the mouth of the Sitompok River which flows directly into the South China Sea.

Kuala Penyu is mostly inhabited by the Dusun Tatana community and the town is known for the numerous Pokok Rumbia that was planted as a source of food and side income among the people for a long time. Due to its importance in the life of the Kuala Penyu community, the rumbia tree is chosen as an icon and the basis for organising the Rumbia Festival every year. Kuala Penyu is home to various local legends that have been passed down from generations to generations.

The 7 Wonders of Kuala Penyu are must-visit destinations when you are in town and some of the include sunrise and sunset locations, Pulau Tiga, Sitompok Lake, Batu Luang, beaches, mud volcano, as well as fishing and seafood destinations.

PESTA KAAMATAN

Kaamatan is a month-long harvest festival celebrated in Sabah by the KadazanDusun ethnic group and related communities. It honors the rice spirit, Bambaazon, and expresses gratitude to the Kinoingan (God) for a bountiful harvest. The festival culminates on the 30th and 31st of May. The bobohizan, Kadazan priestesses, play a significant role in determining the festival date and officiating the Tadau Kaamatan. Other events during Kaamatan include Unduk Ngadau, a beauty pageant, Sugandoi, a singing competition, and Mr. Kaamatan, a male cultural pageant. The festival is eagerly anticipated by all in Sabah and celebrated with great enthusiasm, transcending ethnic and religious boundaries.

CHINESE NEW YEAR

In Kuala Penyu, the celebration of Chinese New Year takes on a unique twist as it is embraced by the Dusun Tatana ethnic group alongside the Chinese community. The history traces back to the 1870s when Chinese immigrants settled in the region, leaving an indelible mark on the local Dusun culture. Today, despite identifying as Dusun Tatana and adopting their own distinct names, the Dusun people continue to celebrate Chinese New Year and maintain traditions like household temple worship. This harmonious fusion of cultures highlights the enduring power of shared celebrations and the influence of history on a community's identity.

PESTA RUMBIA

The Rumbia Festival is another yearly event that the people of Kuala Penyu Sabah participate in to honour the Rumbia Tree, also known as the Sago Tree. The Rumbia Tree, one of the primary plants for the Kuala Penyu district, was celebrated with the introduction of this festival since it contributes significantly to the socioeconomic advancement of the residents of the Kuala Penyu district.

The Rumbia Festival in Kuala Penyu features a number of activities, such as sago production demonstrations, arts and craft fairs, and competitions like peeling of Sago Palm stem for visitors to experience. Visitors who gather to celebrate the Rumbia Festival also have the chance to sample “Ambuyat”, one of the well-known traditional cuisines of the Malay-Brunei tribe in Sabah.

Kuala Penyu's local market, known as Tamu, is a must-visit destination for locals to sell and buy goods and products. Every Tuesday these open-air markets, part of Sabah's heritage, offer a wide variety of foods, including fresh vegetables and dried seafood. Visitors can also purchase authentic products and exotic food ingredients, as well as traditional snacks and dishes. They also provide opportunities to mingle with locals, explore their culture, and meet various tribes, farmers, fishers, hunters, craftsmen, and artisans. Visitors can also admire their traditional arts and crafts, and even buy souvenirs to take home.
